

TIME TO PAY CLUB DUES

All memberships in the Memphis Chess Club expire on Dec. 31. To be eligible to play in the Memphis City Candidates Tournament on Jan. 5, you must pay your annual dues of $20. The Memphis Chess Club meets at 7:30 p.m. every Friday at Grace-St. Luke's Episcopal Church in the Parish Hall, 235 Lemaster at Peabody. You are invited to join us and play in USCF rated tournaments.

NEW ADDRESS FOR THE LITTLES

Jim and Carol Little, the Memphis club's president and secretary for many years, have moved to Seattle, Wash. For those who wish to write them, their new address is:

James C. Little
8413 S.E. 53rd Place
Mercer Island, Wash. 98040

DALE JONES WINS OLD FOGIES

Dale Jones of Greenville, Miss., won the Old Fogies Open at Starkville, Miss., on Dec. 17. Jones won on tie-breakers over Peyton Crowder after they drew each other. See the cross-table on page 7.

NASHVILLE WINS MATCH

The Nashville Chess Club struggled to a one-point victory over a group of Memphis on Dec. 10 at Jackson, Tenn. Despite being outranked by more than 100 points on most boards, the match was made close by the Memphians. John F. Hurt and John Green were outstanding for Memphis as both won two games. See the cross-table on page 7.

---

THE MID-SOUTH CHESS ADVOCATE, published bi-monthly, is the official publication of the Memphis Chess Club, Inc., a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Tennessee. The Advocate's purpose is to promote chess in the greater Mid-South. Subscriptions are free to MCC members and those who have participated in a MCC-sponsored event in the past year. Others can subscribe for $3 a year.

EDITOR: John F. Hurt. ASSOCIATE EDITOR: Marty Appleberry.
TOURNAMENT EDITOR: Bill Neitzel. REGIONAL CONTRIBUTORS: Ed Issa in Mississippi, Gary Newsom in Tennessee, Donny Gray and Bill Wilwers in Arkansas.

ADDRESS all correspondence to: Memphis Chess Club, Inc., 1320 Elkwood, Memphis, TN 38111.